

Nevada Office of Traffic Safety
TECHNOLOGY CERTIFICATION

I certify that the technology components of this application have been reviewed and confirm the feasibility of implementing the proposed project. Appropriate resources will be provided to cover staffing and future funding requirements of the project.

The information systems or management systems will cover the basics of exchange models which include but are not limited to:

- Ability to provide authentication (passwords)
- Security awareness training for staff
- Information exchange agreements between all agencies involved
- Has the purpose of effectively and efficiently sharing critical information
- Provides for the security of any personal identifiable information (PII)

Name

Title

Date

This form should be signed by a qualified technology staff member (preferable) or by the approving authorized official (AAO).